

Authentic Style Design Package.....$1,200

8 weeks, 30 Minutes per week (via phone or Skype) -or- $2,800 for on-site sessions in your home done weekly for 1 hour each visit (Colorado Springs only)

Uncover your true authentic self and your true authentic design style. Interior design was intended to enhance a space making it more aesthetically pleasing and functional as well, but I believe it's more than that. I think our homes should reflect the people living in them, taking into special consideration contrasting tastes. We are constantly subjected to glossy magazines showing us how our homes should look, T.V shows that portray trends instead of genuine introspection to uncover who one is, and what one wants. Discover ways to ignite your creativity and help you really define the design style that will inspire you! Stop feeling conflicted with which trendy design styles to focus on, we will work together on finding what truly makes your soul happy. How to use special heirlooms, treasured keepsakes into your space at the end (obviously from a design aspect anyways)

Package includes:

- Initial Design Consult via phone or Skype
- Deep discovery sessions to identify your goals, your challenges, and the styles that support you best.
- A careful walkthrough of your space if done in person so you can point out to me everything you love and everything you don't. If we are doing this via phone or Skype you can email me photos of those areas. My trained eye catches refreshing possibilities. And my caring heart hears exactly how you feel.
- Therapeutic life coaching + therapeutic design. My unique integration of these two modalities brings out the best in them both — and in you
- Editing sessions to identify what needs to go: objects, clothes, colors, beliefs, doubts, habits — anything holding you back.
- Alignment Action plans. Big visioning, practical suggestions, subtle shifts, and huge breakthroughs.
- Collaborative shopping. Of the most fun sort.
- Design Boards for the areas we are working to change (no revisions)
