

Authentic Style Design.....$2,000

Uncover your true authentic self and your true authentic design style with this holistic design package. This design package is a 3-day intensive package (not consecutive) Each day we will meet one-on-one for 1.5 hours.

Interior design was intended to enhance a space making it more aesthetically pleasing and functional as well, but I believe it's more than that. I think our homes should reflect the people living in them, taking into special consideration contrasting tastes. We are constantly subjected to glossy magazines showing us how our homes should look, T.V shows that portray trends instead of genuine introspection to uncover who one is, and what one wants.

Discover ways to Ignite your creativity and help you really define the design style that will inspire you! Stop feeling conflicted with which trendy design styles to focus on, we will work together on finding what truly makes your soul happy.

Discovery Session 1

We will start by uncovering your true self by uncovering the truths hidden within your natal chart at our initial discovery session (1.5 hr.) This is much more than just knowing your zodiac sign. We will then do a walk through of your space to create an Alignment Action Plan. It is at this point big visioning, practical suggestions, subtle shifts, and huge breakthroughs take place. This may include exercises to complete before our next session, that are specifically catered and designed for you. These exercises will help get those creative juices flowing, releasing your true authentic self, identifying your challenges and styles that support you best. We will explore things like:

- Clutter and Organization
- Negative energy fields
- Color Psychology

Discovery Session 2

This is the fun part- the shopping! We may explore online or brick-and-mortar style together, working with tactile objects and ideas. I will then create your design concept boards (1 board per room being addressed, no revisions, see detailed description under 'Services') with detailed shopping list. I will also identify what needs to go: objects, clothes, colors, beliefs, doubts, habits — anything holding you back.

Discovery Session 3

Finally, I will close out our last session together with my ENERGY + SPACE CLEARING Cleansing and clearing of negative energy in a home is important, and i will show you how you will be able to practice this on your own. I do this by using two techniques.

SMUDGING AND INCENSE.

Smudging is a well-known way to clear the energies of a home. The idea is that the vibration of the burning material (usually sage or palo santo) and the smoke help to not only bring balance but also purify the area. This is a popular method to help in keeping your homes energies supportive and clear.

SALT AND CRYSTALS.

Another favorite way to help clear non-serving energies and to purify and protect areas of your home is to use salt and crystals. By placing a few well-chosen crystals (based off your natal chart, specific to you) in corners of your home may help.

PER HOUR RATE -$100/hr (for instaling accessories, furniture placement and as needed basic only)
