

Organize & Design Package.....$1,500

Is it time to escort a few things to the door? Mementos from a painful past. The embarrassing clutter. That hideous coat. Or maybe have you ever felt overwhelmed when looking for a certain document that you know you've placed somewhere? What about that bill you needed to pay – was it paid? Everyone needs help with organizing. If you're ready to dive in, clear out, explore, express, seek and find. We'll create your beautiful life and the home for it to live in. Together. And Fast.

This design package might be for you if:

- Accomplishing some significant personal growth work
... and your space no longer reflects who you really are.
- Getting married or moving in with a significant other
... and struggling to create a space that holds yours, mine and ours.
- Buying your first home or moving to a new space or city
... and longing to put down real roots.
- Welcoming a new baby or second child
... and need to make room for everybody.
- You work from home
... and needing a space that supports clarity, success, and creativity.
- Shifting into retirement, empty nest, or downsizing
... and needing to create a vision for the next phase of your life.

Most importantly you don't need to have gone through a major, external, or difficult transition to benefit from this work. Perhaps you're just ready for a little update and need to get more organized.

This design package includes:

1. A one-hour Discovery Session where we will identify your goals, your challenges, and the styles that support you best. We will then do a careful walkthrough of the spaces that we will be focusing our efforts of organizing and designing (up to 2 rooms)

2. An Alignment Action Plan identifying what needs to go: objects, clothes, colors, beliefs, doubts, habits — anything holding you back. Big visioning, practical suggestions, subtle shifts, and huge breakthroughs.

3. Two design concept boards (no revisions) and detailed shopping list for any new organizational items (and maybe a couple fun well-thought out pieces too) needed for the new space. Along with great tips and ideas to help us with our organizing project when it's all hands on deck, time!

4. Two hours of me supporting you in a caring way, keeping you on task, and implementing the ideas from the Action Plan, making it a reality.

5. One hour additional on-site after we have organized your space, where I will help re-design with existing items or new items purchased for your newly organized space.
